How to make and publish Digital Crossword Supplements

A digital crossword supplement is a magazine containing pages with crossword puzzles and sudokus that is published digitally through the ePaper app. Either as a stand-alone supplement or as a substitution for the newspaper on print free days (e.g. Sundays).

Three steps to construct a Digital Crossword Supplement

STEP 1
AGREE ON AND RECEIVE MATERIAL

Bulls Press delivers crossword as pictures and links

www.link.com/crossword

STEP 2
BUILD A TEMPLATE AND MAKE FIRST ISSUE

front cover   crossword pages   back cover

STEP 3
PUBLISH YOUR SUPPLEMENTS
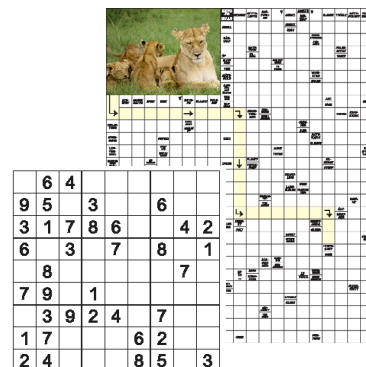

Upload to Visiolink

FTP Server or Visiolink Publishing Hub

STEP 1   AGREE ON AND RECEIVE MATERIAL

Agree with Bulls Press (or another partner) on:
- Publishing frequency (e.g. every Sunday)
- Amount of puzzles per issue (e.g. 6 full page crosswords and 8 sudokus)

Recieve puzzles and sudokus as PDFs and matching links for the online version of the puzzle

STEP 2   BUILD A TEMPLATE AND MAKE FIRST ISSUE

- Place pictures on the crossword pages
- Place the link on top of the pictures
- Make a front cover
- Make a back cover
- Export issue as a PDF

1 page with dynamic front cover   +   X pages with various crosswords, puzzles and sudokus   +   1 page with static back cover

STEP 3   PUBLISH YOUR SUPPLEMENTS

- Upload to FTP Server or manually on Visiolink Publishing Hub
- Make sure to upload to the right folder
- Make sure to set publish time right
